All Roads Lead to Goldenberg's Thursday

Goldenberg's
The Dependable Store
Seventh and K Sts.

From the dulllest day in the week we've made Thursday the busiest, through the agency of our THURSDAY BARGAIN SALE. By careful planning and large buying we manage to bring you the biggest kind of bargains in seasonable merchandise on this occasion, and in consequence all economically inclined folk respond with enthusiasm.

Parrot like, other stores follow our lead with sales that are one and all a poor imitation of our Thursday Bargain Sale—and, like all imitations, they lack the splendid features and zest of the original. A noteworthy list of ONE-DAY bargains for tomorrow—the result of our ambition to impress upon every Washington shopper the fact that Goldenberg's undersell and out-value at every point. We cannot fill mail or 'phone orders for the items advertised for tomorrow.

Mended Kid Gloves, 50c $1 to $1.50 Values - 50c

Many pairs of Gloves are returned to the factory in the course of a season because of ripped seams caused by carelessness in trying on. These are replaced by the makers with new Gloves—and when a large quantity has accumulated we get them to sell at a fraction of their actual worth.

Consisting of the finest grade Lambskin, Kid, and Suede Gloves, in black, tan, mode, gray, red, and white. Correct 2-clasp with self and fancy stitching. All sizes.

That's how it comes about that we can offer Gloves that retailed at $1.00, $1.25, and $1.50 a pair for 50 cents!
